

Daniel Saltzberg

Partner

Daniel Saltzberg Koris is the partner in charge of the Real Estate Law practice. With more than 25 years of experience, he has participated in high-profile transactions involving real estate developments, financing, and acquisitions. His background includes representing international investment funds—both public and private—across various segments of the real estate sector. He also advises developers and private equity funds on acquisition, structuring, financing, and asset management processes.

Practice areas

- Real Estate
- Structured and Corporate Financing
- Gaming
- Corporate

Awards and Recognitions

- Chambers Latin America, Band 2 Lawyer in Real Estate, 2010 – 2026.
- Chambers and Partners USA Award for Excellence, Real Estate, 2013.
- The Legal 500, Real Estate, Tier 4, 2010 – 2026 (ranked practice area and Lead Partner).
- Best Lawyers in Mexico, Real Estate, 2019-2026.
- Latin American Corporate Counsel Association (LACCA), Approved for Real Estate & Tourism, 2015-2025.

Education

- 2003 Maestría en Derecho (L.L.M) Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law, Chicago.
- 2003 Certificado en Negocios Kellogg School of Management, Chicago.
- 2000 Licenciado en Derecho (JD) Universidad Anáhuac, Ciudad de México.

Professional Experience

- Partner, Sainz (anteriormente Cervantes Sainz) (2010-2011) (2016-2025).
- Partner, Greenberg Traurig. (2011-2016).
- Regional Legal Manager, Pfizer S.A de C.V. (2007-2010).
- Associate, Ritch Muller S.C. (2006-2007).
- Counsel, Pfizer Inc. (2004-2006).