

Mario E. Juárez

Partner

Mario E. Juárez Noguera is a partner at BRIT with extensive experience in banking and finance, including project, structured and corporate finance, as well as capital markets, M&A, and regulatory matters. He regularly advises both domestic and international financial institutions, development banks, and corporate clients.

Mario has a solid track record in structuring complex cross-border transactions.

Practice areas

- Banking & Finance
- Project Finance
- Structured and Corporate Finance
- Factoring and RPAs
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Capital Markets
- Regulatory

Relevant matters

- Represented Goldman Sachs in a public-to-private acquisition financing, including a EUR €100 million revolving credit facility and the issuance of bonds for USD $335 million and EUR €475 million.
- Represented IFC in a MXN$1,150 million secured loan granted to Vinte Viviendas Integrales, S.A.B. de C.V.
- Represented IIC in a US$50 million convertible secured loan to Xante & VI, S.A.P.I. de C.V.

- Represented IFC in various secured loans to certain investment vehicles managed by Altum Capital.
- Represented a DFI in a Tier 1 financing to a Mexican bank through the issuance of subordinated bonds.
- Represented IFC in a US$150 million loan granted to a commercial bank in El Salvador.
- Represented IFC, Bancomext, and CIBanco in a USD $160 million loan to a Mexican pharmaceutical company.

Education

- 2001 Master of Laws (LL.M.), Duke University, North Carolina, USA.
- 1998 Law Degree (J.D.), Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City,

Professional experience

- Partner, Garrigues México (2016–2025).
- Partner, Ritch, Mueller, Heather y Nicolau, S.C. (2012–2016).
- Counsel, International Finance Corporation (IFC), Washington D.C. (2006–2009).
- Foreign Associate, Chadbourne & Parke LLP, Washington D.C. (2002–2003).